POETRY.

SPRING .- N. P. WILLIS. The Spring is here—the delicate-footed May, With its slight fingers full of leaves and flowers,

And with it comes a thirst to be away, Washing in wood-paths its voluptuous hours,

A feeling that is like a sense of wings, Restless to soar above these perishing things. We pass out from the city's feverish hum,

To find refreshment in the silent woods; And nature that is beautiful and dumb, Like a cool sleep upon the pulses broods, Yet even there, a restless thought will steal

To teach the indolent heart it still must feel. Strange that audible stillness of the noon, The waters tripping with their silver feet, The turning to the light of leaves in June, And the light whisper as their edges meet, Strange-that they fill not, with their tranquil tone One spirit, walking in their midst alone. There's no contentment in a world like this,

Save in forgetting the immortal dream: We may not gaze upon the stars of bliss, That thro' the clouds-rifts radiantly stream; Bird-like the prisoned soul will lift its eye And sing-till it is hooded from the sky.

From the New Yorker. HE COMES NOT YET.

"Tis night-from Heaven's sapphire loft The moon smiles on the lea, And zephyr's sighs are stealing soft Across the earth and sea; The sister spirits of the even, In their blue home above, Have lit the twinkling lamp of heaven, To light the hour of love; And every herb, and tree and flower, With twilight's dew is wet; It is his own loved moonlight hour-But, oh! he comes not yet.

"Each little wave hath murmured o'er Its moonbeam witnessed bliss, And stolen on to give the shore A holy vesper kiss:

Each flow'ret from the lip of night A drop of dew hath pressed, Then folded up its leaves in light And perfumed sweetened rest; And every charm that sea and sky Have on our plannet set, Proclaims that Love's own hour is nigh-

But, oh! he comes not yet."

PITY AND CHARITY INCULCATED.—The very pirate, that dyes the ocean's wave with the blood of his fellow beings; that meets with his defenceless victim in some lonely sea, where no cry for help can be heard, and plunges his dagger to the heart that is pleading for life-which is calling upon him by all the names of kindred, and home to spareyes, the very pirate is such a man, as you or I might have been. Orphanage in childhood; an unfriended youth; an evil companion; a vice; a scorned and blighted name; seared and crush affections; desperate fortunes;- stock complete. these are steps which might have led any one among us, to unfurl upon the high seas the bloody flag of universal defiance; to have waged war with our kind; to have put on the terrific attributes, to have done the dreadful receive, and despatch.

The terrific attributes and despatch.

That head that is doomed to pay the price of blood, once rested on a mother's bosom. The hand that did that accursed work, and shall soon be stretched, cold and nerveless, in the felon's grave, was once taken and cherished by a father's hand, and led in the ways of sportive childhood and innocent pleasure. The dreaded monster of crime, has once been the object of sisterly love, and all domestic endearment. Pity him, then .-Pity his blighted hope and his crushed heart. It is wholesome sensibility. It is reasonsble: it is meet for frail and sinning creatures like us to cherish. It foregoes no moral discrimination. It feels no moral discrimination. It feels no crime; but feels it as a weak, tempted, and rescued creature should. It imitates the great Master; and looks with

SWEET RECOLLECTIONS OF THE DEPARTED. In looking back to the life of one we have loved, how dear is the thought, that the latter days were the days of light-that the cloud never chilled the beauty of the setting sun, and that if the years of existence were brief, all that existence has most tender, most sacred, was crowded into that space! OLD CHEROKEE. THE subscriber takes great pleasure in announcing to the Breeders of this and the adjoining States, of the arri-justly celebrated horse, who is now just like a colt, and will make his first season at LOUISVILLE, Mo -which has commenced, and will expire on the 1st of July next: his terms are forty dollars the season, payable at the expiration of the same; lars the season, payable at the expiration of the same; sixty dollars to insure a mare with foal: one dollar to the Groom in each case, to be paid when the service is benefitted, and who were previously unacquainted rendered. Good pasturage gratis, for mares from a dis-tance, and corn fed at a reasonable price if required— great care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility for either. Any gentleman who breeds to Cherokee, the present season and fails to get a colt, will have the liberty of breeding gratis the ensuing year. Cherokee's reputation is so well established, and his Cherokee's reputation is so well established, and his character so generally known, that it is almost useless to say any thing about the purity of his blood, or the performance of his colts; but as there may be persons who have not noticed his pedigree, it will only be necessary to say that he was sired by old Sir Archie, his dam young Rozanns, by old Hephestion. Cherokee is a beautiful mahogany buy, full sixteen hands high: in point of form he cannot be surpassed by any horse, but as it is pre-sumed that persons who intend breeding to him will examine for themselves, it is unnecessary to give any further description. For the performance of his colts, the subscriber would beg leave to refer gentlemen to the American Turf Register, or the Spirit of the Times where it will be seen that his colts won almost every important race in Ky., in the year 1836, to wit the four mile day at Lexington, the three mile day at Louisville, and three mile day at Richmond, beside many other mile and two mile heats. Cherokee stood for many years in the vicinity of Lex ington Ky., and was purchased in 1836, by a company who removed him to Greensburg, in the southern part of the state, where he remained until brought by the subscriber to Missouri. The colts which he got while standing at Greensburg, were considered superior to any that were ever droped in that country: they won all their engagements last full, and received many premiums, which were awarded by the different agricultural societies of that country.

The Virginia Horse

WILL stand the present season, one half of his time at my stable, near Sugar Creek, one half mile of the New London and Louisiana road; eight London and Louisiana road; eight miles west of the latter, and six miles east of Frankford: the other half, at Dabney Jones' Esq., on Spencer Creek, five miles east of New London, and will be let to mares at $7 the season, payable the 25th of December next: the single leap, payable at the time of service, and ten dollars for insurance: payable as soon as the mare is known to be in foul or transferred. Any person putting 5 mares, will be charged with 4 only. Season commenced, and will expire on the 4th day of July next. Every possible attention will be paid to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility bay, handsomely marked, black mane, tail and legs, with a most delightful coat of hair; of most commanding appearance, great strength, beauty, and action; nine years old this spring, good health, fif-feen hands three inches and a half high, and is thought by the best judges, that he is not excelled in point of appearance by any horse in Missouri; and I can say, that I think him the surest foal getter I ever kept. Should any mares fail to prove in foal that were put last spring, only half price will be charged, in case gentlemen send again. Gentlemen that put to Tristam Shandy, will recollect on the 4th day of July next, is the day I am to pay $30 to the owner that produces the finest coalt.

PEDIGREE -Tristam Shandy was got by Shakspeare, he by Virginian; the favorite son of Sir Archie, and among his most distinguished racers; his dam was sold in 1829, to Livingston, of New York, for $1100:-is by Mr. Herbert Hill's bay horse Shenan-doah-one of the first sons of the celebrated race horse Potomac; he was out of a bay mare by the imported horse Febrifuge-her dam by imported Grey Diomed-ber grand dam by Wild Air-g. g. dam A LL PERSONS interested, are hereby notified by Flimmap—her g g g dam by Old Valiant. MOFFAT'S Vegetable Life Medicines.

THESE medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor. In many bundred certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of MOPFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS have been with the beautifully philosophical principle upon which they are compounded, and upon which they

Consequently act
The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves n diseases of every form and description. Their first operations is to loosen from the coats of the stomuch and bowels, the various impurities and crudities constantly settling around them; and to re-move the hardened faces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other medicines only partially cleause these, and leave such collected nasses behind as to produce habitual costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhoa, with its mminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists, who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the prejudice of these well informed men against quack medicines-or medicines prepared and heralded to the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is, to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means, the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every eart of the system, and triumphantly mounts the nanner of health in the blooming cheek.

Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Heart-burn and Headache, Restesoness, Ill-temper, Anxiety, Languer and Melancholy, Costiveness, Diarrhan, Cholera, Fevers of all kinds, Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all kinds, Grael, Worms, Asthma, and Consumption, Scurvy, Ulcers, Invetrate Sores, Scorbutic Eruptions and Bad complexions, Eruptive complaints, Sallow, Cloudy, and other disagreeable Complaints, Salt Rheum, Eryspelse, Common Colds and Influenza, and various other complaints which afflict the human frame. In FEVER AND Agge, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most emmently successful; so much so that in the Feverand Ague Districts, Physicians almost universally prescribe them.

All that Mr. Moffat requires of his patients is to be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly according to the directions It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he himself may say in their favor, that he hopes to gair credit. It is alone by the results of a fair trial.
